

Dr. Zoltan Deak
2420 Sedgwick Avenue
New York, N.Y. 10468
Telephone: (212) LU-4-7439

Male
Born in Hungary 1905
Married--No Children
American Citizen since 1955

EDUCATION:

Doctor in Political Science from the University of Budapest, Hungary.
Doctor in Juridical Science from the University of Szeged, Hungary.
Also attended University of Graz in Austria.

EXPERIENCE:

Journalistic Activities:

Columnist for Ujpesti Szemle, Hungary
Editor for Budapestvidéki Ujsag, Hungary
Editor for Film-Színház-Irodalom (Film-Theatre-Literature), Hungary
Editor for Színház (Theatre), Hungary
Editor and Owner of Szabad Toll (Free Pen), Brussels, Belgium
Editor and Owner of Az Ember (The Man), New York City, N.Y.

LITERARY ACTIVITIES:

- A. Books published in Budapest, Hungary:
A Mindenség Áramában
Európai Egyesült Államok
Szerelem
Horizont (two volumes)
Dél-sziget (three volumes)
Egyetlen Szerep
- B. Short stories, poems, essays and reports in various magazines and other publications in Budapest, Paris, Brussels, London, Stockholm, etc. between 1938 and 1958.
- C. Filmstories:
Afrikai Volegeny
Gentryfeszek
Zugnak A. Szirenek

The pictures were produced and presented in Budapest,
Hungary in 1939, 1940 and 1941.

- D. Radio Activities:
Director of many radio plays on the "Radio Budapest"
Director of several plays on WWRL Hungarian Broadcasts in New York City.
- E. Educational Activities:
Professor of Drama at the Rozsavolgyi Academy of Drama in Budapest.
- F. Directing Activities:
Directed several plays at the Hungarian Theaters
in Brussels and New York (Carnegie Hall, Town Hall, Barbizon Plaza Theatre, etc.)
- G. Political Activities:
During the Semi-Fascist Horthy era in Hungary,
member of the opposition.
During the Nazi occupation, among the leaders of the Resistance Movement; arrested, tortured, condemned.
During the post-war coalition regime, member of the Democratic "Small Holders Party." Head of the Cultural Department of the Party.
In 1947, after the Communist takeover, fled to Western Europe. Came to the United States in 1951 with a special visa.