

A poet's welcome

"Better late than never." ~~Amson~~
 Daily Rev. Pl. Dealer Dec. 23-1851 - P3 10/1

Kind, gallant K! 'Tis the old world's woe - the clanking chain - humanity's foe - hearts that are withering, death

miserably rip -
 The hopes of the hopeless that hang on thy lip.

Up! America, up! Freedom's blessings increase.

Spite of 'Balance of Power' and "Treaties of Peace."

'Tis thy Mission which sooner or later must away
 To turn Tyranny! Right into Liberty's day.
