

BAKÓ, Elemér, Professor, linguist
* 1915, Hencida, Bihar m. nov. 18 - came to U.S. as a displaced person in 1951 - his wife whom he married in Germany, is a Countess Pongrácz, - whose mother, also a Countess Pongrácz works as a waitress at Marosy's Restaurant,
Riggs Road Wash, D.C.
(arriv. in U.S. May 1951)

Bakó organized the "Magyar Munkhözseg" which publ. "Uj Magyar Ut" monthly, of which he was editor

Later Library of Congress

Author: Hungarian abbreviations, Lib.
Goals & methods of Hungarian dialectology in America 1962
New Brunswick, 1962, Rutgers

Gulyás Pál: M. irók I. 1086 (L.C.)