

COLUMBUS DISPATCH

Ohio boys make good. Know them?

THEY WENT FORTH TO FAME

EACH year two native sons of Ohio who have done superlative things in the world are summoned to Columbus to be awarded the coveted Career Medal of the Ohio Library Association. In 1951 the honored men were Lowell Thomas and Howard Chandler Christy. Recently the gentlemen in the picture received the 1952 awards. At the left is playwright Russel Crouse. The other chap is Stevan Dohanos, who painted our Christmas cover.
