

DONAT, George

DONAT

George Donat, the Commerce Department official who has been writing letters to editors arguing that Government-paid research should not be the property of the Government but of private firms, is leaving the Government to work for Parke, Davis & Co., the big drug firm. Before leaving the Government he propagandized for the drug company for which he is to work later.

1965 Aug. 7.

