

Dr. L. J. Czapkay

Page 225 -

"Dr, L. J. Czapkay, an Hungarian, is a sincere friend of the Polish cause".

Page 226 -

"Dr. L. J. Czapkay is one of the most ardent members of the *'Polish Committee'' in San Francisco, California".

Page 241 -

"During the observance of the Polish Insurrection of 1863 by the Poles in San Francisco on Jan. 22, 1864, Dr. L. J. was one of the principal speakers." He spoke on the harmony and historic friendship of the Hungarian and Polish Nations. " "

*The "'Polish Committee'' in San Francisco was organized by Poles to aid the Polish Insurrection of 1863 and after.

Bibliography:

Haiman, M. Ślady Polskie w Ameryce. Szkice Historyczne. Chicago, 1938. Translation --

"Polish Traces in America. Historical Sketches.