

Eckhardt

"A lakkesizmás parasztok"

1939 Feb.15.

Imredy, the Nazi Premier of Hungary resigned with his cabinet. Eckhardt was in the opposition with his Small Farmers party, but they were not taken very seriously. People called them: Peasants in patent-leather boots" (Bauern in Lackstiefeln). Völkischer Beobachter, Feb.16 (7), 1939

Feb 23 PL (6) on about Jewish Question

Eckhardt

1939

His speech in connection with second Jewish law and about the disturbers of national order and peace

Pesti Hirlap

March 1 - 1939 (3-4)

P. Lloyd feb 28 - '39

Budapesti Hirlap, March 1 - 1939

(See clipping - next - repr.
in "Magyar Tribune" Chicago
Nov. 28 - 1941.)

