

Eckhardt

1937

about Eckhardt in 1937 see:

Wolfe, Henry C.: The German Octopus, N.Y.
1938, Doubleday-Doran,
Chapter: "New, new, oha!"

P. 279 "In March 1937, E. submitted to the premier a memorandum, charging that an underground
pro-German organization, generously financed from the Reich, was attempting to dictate its foreign policies. The Movement, he stated, was headed by Deputies Andreas Meiser and Gabriel Baross. Baross was compelled to resign his post as Pres. of H. Postal Savings Bank during the franc forgery scandal in 1929."