

Dionis Martin

Warm, William <sup>Born 1866</sup>
(pseud.) <sup>Spert</sup>

Lawyer

Ex Deputy in the Hungarian

Parliament, H. journalist in U.S.

He had to leave H. because involvement in a bribery scandal

Real name: Martin Diepres

(See there)

About his plan to sabotage
American factories etc
during first world war, see:

See: Dumba

Dumba Constantin: Memoirs
of a diplomat, 1934 - P 256
(own)

Pagger, Eugene S.: in Robert E.
Park: The immigrant
press and its control,
Harper, 1922, 429-432,
347-352 (own)

66-th Congress 1st Session, Senate Document No. 62 (Breuing and Ligny interests and German and Bolshevik propaganda) pp 1466-1468.
Warm's memorandum to Dumba.

NY Times Index

1915 Oct - Nov - Dec
pp 215 - 220

Dumba's part in plan, in connect. with the digging of papers of James Archibald