

FERKO, Stephen

He was an uneducated young man in one of the mining places near Pittsburgh, Pa.

Ferkó István

kitüntetése

1951

Sep

Az American Evangelistic Association Detroitban tartott kétnapos konvenciója alkalmával Ferkó Istvánt a jótékony-ság, a börtönökben és kórházakban végzett missziós szolgálata és az evangéliumi eszmék terjesztése terén kifejtett kiváló működése elismeréséért a Doctor of Divinity (D.D.) címmel és jelleggel tüntette ki.

(Bruceton) who lived with a group in the murder of a woman. He was to death but was changed to repentant. His defense he had nothing to murder, he was the group of youths doing nothing.

He spent many years in Western Penitentiary near Pittsburgh, converted by Baptists. Because of his exemplary life in prison many people worked for his freedom (Hungarians say) finally he was pardoned. worked steadily in Gospel work with Baptists, lives in Detroit.

Meghalt 1976 Nov.

in Los Angeles, Cal