GORGEOUS GABOR

MEMBER OF THE fabulous Gabor family of three beautiful sisters and a beautiful mother, Eva Gabor's paramount interest in life is her career. As a school girl in Budapest, she played hookey to attend dramatic performances, and the years she spent in Hollywood were devoted to learning all aspects of acting. She is extremely ambitious, and is willing to work long hours to further her career.

After returning to New York from Hollywood, Miss Gabor spent some months knocking in vain on the doors of theatrical producers. Then she made a single appearance on television with Burgess Meredith and the next day was asked to read for a part in the Rodgers and Hammerstein show "The Happy Time." She got the part and the play is a Broadway hit. But, television is nearest Miss Gabor's heart.

At present the Eva Gabor Show (WJZ-TV, Friday, 8:00 PM, EST) is a local New York show. It consists of Miss Gabor interviewing what she calls "the woman of the week" and some music. She makes guest appearances, and recently was seen on color TV where her luminous blonde beauty was a definite asset. She prefers television to the theater because the audience is so much bigger and varied. She thinks it is the most important audience today.

On these pages are pictures of Eva Gabor at home and at work. Above costumed for part of an Hungarian countess, at right posing under a portrait of herself

32

33

Finishing touches being applied to Eva's makeup in Westmore's Hollywood sanctum. Below she tries an old riding costume

Eva tries out her lines (above) on actor friend Charles Hall. Jerry Colonna listens in on chat with Lucille Ball

When Miss Gabor was making pictures in Hollywood she went to work at 6:30 PM. Here her pet boxer Ronnie says goodbye

Gorgeous Gabor

Hard-working Eva studying her script at breakfast time. The coffee is getting cold but she obviously doesn't notice

Miss Gabor takes an active interest in her investments. Here she is discussing stock market activities with her broker