

In 1971 he left CBS Laboratories, altho he was offered a contract for 10 yrs, with $75,000 salary

His own new firm is a subsidiary of the Kinney Services Corp.

His autobiography (own)

"Maverick inventor"
(My turbulent years at CBS)
with Leo Edson
New York, 1973,
Saturday Review Press, 278 p.

