

(1911 - )

Best

Habe, Hans (Pseud. of John)

To U.S. : Dec 3 - 1940 (Béressy)

This book :

"Eine Zeit bricht zusammen"
Rev. P. Lloyd 1939 Jan 12 (11)
(morgen) praised

Van Gelder Robt. Writers +
Writing, Scribner 1946
224-8

Kunitz : 20th Century Authors,
1st Suppl. P. 399 - (Clev. Pk.)

THE BLACK EARTH

By HANS HABE, Author of A Thousand Shall Fall

"A gripping novel built around the march of so-called progress, in Habe's native Hungary . . . a passionate story of a groping towards freedom, told in the person of a young peasant who battled in his soul against the slavery to which he was heir — who swore vengeance against the beautiful young countess who took him, briefly, as a lover."

—VIRGINIA KIRKUS. $3.50

1952

(See: Béressy, Imroe)