My dear Mr. Huziányi:

Thank you for your letter and the very interesting and valuable enclosure. Of course I am much interested in the fate of Hungary and whoever lifts a finger with the intention of helping her out of her present predicament and tries to make her future treatment more just, in my estimation renders a definite service not only to the future Hungary but to humanity as well. So kindly send me everything you write with this intention.

I recall with pleasure our meeting here in Washington, which gave me an opportunity to know you personally. I hope to see you again.

With best wishes, I am

cordially yours

Edmund Vasváry
