

Klein Julius Gen.

his reminiscences 40 yrs ago
when 1st world war broke out

He was 13, pupil of the Sophien

College <sup>for 7 years</sup>

Berlin, in Chicago

(Semi milit. school)

Tribune Aug 4 1954

and as "Extension of Remarks"
in Congressional Record
1954 Aug 9

P. A 5865-6

1963
Ex-Chicago newsman Julius Klein, who receives around $128,000 a year for representing West German industrialists, has the ear of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. Klein's activities and advice often run contrary to the efforts of the West German embassy here, a German diplomat complained to PARADE. But Klein wouldn't draw his handsome fee if somebody didn't think he was valuable.