

Eve. Star

1941

WASHINGTON, D. C., FEBRUARY 16,

Destroyer Ingraham Launched at Charleston

By the Associated Press.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Feb. 15.—The 1,500-ton destroyer Ingraham, built at a cost of $5,000,000, was launched today at the Charleston Navy Yard. It will be commissioned this summer.

Dr. Tivor Kerekes, representing the American-Hungarian Federation, presented a bronze plaque to the vessel which was named for Capt. Duncan N. Ingraham (1802-1891), who won thanks of Congress for interfering with the detention of a Hungarian-born American citizen aboard an Austrian warship at Smyrna in 1853. Capt. Ingraham, a native of Charleston, later served in the Confederate Navy.

Mrs. George Ingraham Hutchinson, a granddaughter of Capt. Ingraham, was sponsor at the launching.

Five more destroyers are building on the ways here.

Wash. Herald

Aug 28, 1942

Taps for U. S. Warship:

Destroyer Ingraham Lost In Fog Collision in Atlantic

The Navy last night announced the loss of the one-year-old destroyer Ingraham as a result of a collision in fog in the Atlantic.

The disclosure was made in a Navy announcement which gave no other detail other than the next of kin of those lost have been notified.

The Ingraham was commissioned July 17 last year. It was launched on February 15, 1941, with Mrs. George Ingraham Hutchinson, of Pine Ridge Inn, Charleston, S. C., as sponsor. She is a granddaughter of Capt. Duncan N. Ingraham, for whom the vessel was named.

The announcement also reported that the American destroyer Ingraham, carrying a normal complement of 175 officers and men, has been lost in a collision during fog in the Atlantic. The 1,600-ton vessel was one year old. No further details were given.