

Kossuth in Cincinnati

Rutherford B. Hayes ^(then President) to his uncle, Cincinnati.
Feb 9 - 1852

"K. is expected today and will be marched and buzzed, toasted, and spoken at, at a terrific rate. Poor man, I pity him. To be dragged about so, and to get so little substantial aid! I shall not wonder if he dies under his labors and disappointments."

(Williams, C. R.: Diary and
Letters of R. B. Hayes
I, 407)

H. in Cincinnati

- Louisville Ky Courier

1852 March 1 - 2-3 (anti)

(much else in subsequent copies)

Cleveland Herald

1852 March 17 (p. 2, Col 3)

U. V. Col 1

