"Some of the Mississ. officers are dissatisfied with K's having gone to England. They say: "He didn't sufficiently appreciate the Amer. compliment, which was never given anyone except La Fayette."

Other officers said: "This shows his greatness and yet to thank and to further the ship. cause"

"we are informed by M's officers that K's real object going to England is to further his revolutionary designs in Eur. Lemmi is an emissary of Mazzini & exerts great influence on B and is much more radical than K"
