

Kossuth

banknotes printed in England

Notes and Queries

1891 [7th Series Vol 12]

P. 452 (W. Day himself

Printed by Wm Day

tells story)

100 presses going day & night

much publicity

Sir Richard Mayne (Scotland Yard)

sends polite note to Day to call upon him; informs Day that making and ^{supplying money for a country with} which is at peace w/ Engl. - Give names inform! Day: I must think this over - Appointment next day

Printer tells Mayne he prints notes which could be of value only in case R. becomes dictator of H. - This is a legit business, does not print imitation of existing notes - Gives no further information -

Some time later Emp. of Austria instit. legal suit ag.

R. and Day - Discussion in Parl. -

Order to deliver notes to Bank of England to be burned

Wagners deliv. notes to Threadneedle St. & burned

Kossuth in England

Moran (Benj.) Journal
1857-65 Publ. 1948 (several places)

(Moran was Secy of American legation in London)

1863

K's letter re Polish revolution My Tim 1863 March 29 (8-2)

