

Born Oct 9 - 1782 Exeter N.H.
+ June 17, 1866, Detroit

Lawyer in Zanesville, O 1812
U.S. Marshal (Ohio)
1812 in British War
in command of Detroit

Cass, Lewis sr

Secy of War under Jackson (1831-) for 18 yrs Gov. of Northwest Territory (Westward) Minister to France (1836-42)
Sen. from Michigan (1845-57)
(until 1860) Secy of State under Buchanan Continuous candidate for the Democr. nomination for the presidency (1848-1) lost to Zach Taylor (Americanism),

minst. Sessuth tervege la franci adhal appeal to people over the government
: Cass as Minister to France appealed to the people over the heads of Govt to defeat the Treaty with England (in early forties)

since the war of 1812 continuously dis covered imaginary plots of England against U.S., prejudiced against England

Kindest of men, unblemished character, real patriot, moderate abilities

(Lewis Einstein in "The Am. Secretaries of State, vol. VI - 298)

Kossuth int Cassanah / prmsat'ol
Hentaller 379 (Hajnal?)

H. and Cass

Alexandria, Va. Gazette
1892 Jan 20, Col 3
~

H. to L. Cass, publ. in Washington Union Aug - 1850 (Orig. probably among Cass papers, Detroit Publ. Lib. No

(I looked over the Cass papers in 1952 in Detroit, there is nothing among them relating to H. or Hungary)

Cass papers in

- ① W. Clements Libr. Univ. of Mich
Ann Arbor
- ② Boston Hist. Collection (Cass papers)
Detroit Publ. Library
- ③ Nat'l Archives, Washington
- ④ miscell. NY Publ. Lib.
"Histor. Socy
Libr. of Congress

