

Long, John Collings

born Portsmouth, N.H., 1795, Sep. 5.
died No¹ Conway, N.H., 1865 Sep. 2. (Carroll Co.)
53 years in service

Midshipman June 18, 1812
Captain March 2, 1849
Commodore on retired list July 16, 1862

Commander of the "Mississippi"

"He would not allow Kossuth to deliver revolutionary harangues at Marseilles, which so annoyed the Hungarian that he left the ship at Gibraltar."
(The Cyclopedia of American Biography, Vol. 4. 1915)

Page 9.

Longer biography:

Lamb's Biogr. Dictionary, Vol. V. 113.

"...essentially one of the most mild, conscientious and obliging officers in the navy"

*Letter, dated 10/12-1851 Marseilles
NY Eve Post 11/4-51 - P. Col 7*

His hometown was Exeter, N.H. is buried there

Portrait in Navy Collection (Room 5081, Mr. Burke in charge)

North Conway - Pop. 1525 (1930)

buried in home town

Exeter N.H.

Rev. Burroughs Portsmouth
episc. pres. vegeta

Portsmouth (N.H.) Journal
Sep 9-1865

P2 (Vol 3-4)

Pittsburgh Commercial Journal (Pa.)
Jan 15-1852 2/1
(original)

In New York Times Index
(dit long)

Issues: 32, 47, 98, 108, 111,
129, 130, 135

