About the Internationale

Saturday  $\frac{12}{2}$  54.

My dear Sir!

401.

Magnifying reminding me that to have the character of your dinner complete it would good to have also invited Mr. Stanislas Worcell (35 Hunter Street Brunswick Square)

I very much prefer. He is a prominent and distinguished old gentleman of the Polish fraction of the great nation of exiles; he presents the Polish nationality in the Democratic Central Committee here. His name bears a strongly pronounced republican colour.

Perhaps a German also should be invited. Unfortunately I know none of the leading men to be in town - One of the most conspicuous amongst them is Mr Arnold Ruge he is at Brighton 186 Western Road. Perhaps he would come to London, if he were told what the dinner means. In any case an invitation sent to him would at least insure you against the blame of utterly disregarding the German. - They are numerous. ② ment in Europe

Eden Rubin I understand accepts. but ~~cannot~~ let him not be brought together with Mr Richards, who has attacked him violently in the Moon's advertisement

Yours sincerely
