

A gettysburgi beszéd is a hallgatóság

Cunnington W.H., lapudósítói leírása:

"I was an eyewitness and hearer, and my position was immediately beside the speaker - I can bear witness that this address fell upon unappreciative ears, was entirely unnoticed and wholly disappointing to a majority of the hearers..."

"Lincoln looked haggard & pale, and wore a rather shabby overcoat. From an inside pocket of which he drew a small roll of manuscript --- soon finished, not a word, not a cheer, not a shout."

"It was my good fortune to occupy a place directly beside Mr. Lincoln..."

"Under both flags", Philadelphia, 1896, Peoples Publ. Co., p. 73-74)

F 655
.V62