

A patriot's song. ✓

(From the new drama of "The
Furber Rochester Democrat, Jan 26, 1852
1/5)

The felon King has trampled on
Each old and sacred right,
Shall we in serfdom tamely live,
Or Freedom's battle fight,
We will for Freedom fight!

Our name 'mong nations blotted out,
Vain our despairing cry;
Henceforth we will as freemen live,
Or will as freemen die,
We will as freemen die!

Shall we to Austria's despot bow,
Or slavish bend the knee?
No; rather hurl him from his throne,
And set it free.
Yes; it shall be free.

Charles Tanburn