

Excerpt from "Carrier's
Annual Address" ~~1851~~

Penna Telegraph w
Harrisburg, Pa. 1851 Jan 7

1st stanza

anon

"To poor H. let us show our kindly wishes with her go,
That, though thrown to dross by the will
Of Russian despots, she may still With firmness all her rights maintain,
'Till victory Freedom shall proclaim;
And to her brave defender here,
To whom his "Fatherland" is dear,
Let us a noble welcome give,
Worthy the land in which we live."
