The net result of P's appeal to Congress for assistance consisted of a French engineer, Col Lawney Lt Col John Laurens (his native state) and Gen Count Pulch, with the remnant of his own desert corps which had been cut to pieces at Little Egg Harbor in the Fall before and which now consisted of but 120 men, called by courtesy a legion. P. came with a reputation for heroism and milit. ability, notwithstanding his surprise and disaster on the Oct before - heroism he abundantly displayed, but milit. ability, he did not exhibit.
