

Pulaski kamis "fivere"

E263
K6564

Hist. memoirs of
Wm Smith 1778-87
(1971)

Wm Clayton, writing from Phila to Gen Horatio Gates, Aug 20, 1780, said: "A so-called brother of Count Pulaski went to the side of the enemy. I think that he was afraid that it would get known that he was chased from the Lauzun French Legion." - This extract is quoted from State Records of North Carolina XIV, p. 566. Haiman speaks
ab. the identity of the apparent impostor. Pulaski's brother died in 1769, Anthony never in (America)

{ 3 Brothers: Casimir
Jerome
Antal }

Benyovsky noic vol. 1

aki P. fellesküzének mondta (amoa teszt) magát

Lásd: Droichukko, P. 408
(Benyovsky kötet 193)