

1976

Still collecting foreign birthday presents on behalf of the United States, President Ford received two gold coins from the people of Poland yesterday. Thaddeus Kosciuszko and Casimir Pulaski, who helped in the Revolution, are pictured on the coins, for which Ford said he was "deeply grateful." The secretary of the Polish Workers Party headed a five-man delegation to bring the coins.

2010. p. E 2104
Candian Record 1972