Kováts

Wash. Ch. Kings

to Richard Henry Lee

Yorktown, May 17,

1777

at the time, or before this letter can reach you, Congress will be visited by a person who calls himself Colonel Michael Fabricy &

Kováts, who according to his own account is a most valuable officer from Prussia. What his credentials are I know not, but from what little I have seen of him, they ought to be strong to convince me of his real importance, for if his conversations have been faithfully interpreted, he has been caught tripping several times."
