

Princeton University Press Announces

STEPHEN SZÉCHENYI AND THE AWAKENING OF
HUNGARIAN NATIONALISM, 1791-1841

By George Barany

505 pages plus 8 pages of plates, 2 maps. 1968. L.C.C. 68-20865 $15.00
(For the special price of $13.50, please use the order form below.)

In this political biography of Count Stephen Széchenyi Professor Barany asks the question, "Why is it that a nation gave the epithet 'greatest' to a man who seemed to have failed as a practical politician?"

Professor Barany finds Széchenyi a man of paradoxes. He was a forerunner and political opponent of Louis Kossuth, yet Kossuth repeatedly called him "the greatest among Magyars." As captain of hussars, previously unknown in Hungarian public life, he founded the Hungarian Academy of Sciences. A dandy at the Congress of Vienna, he became one of his nation's most renowned thinkers and writers on welfare, culture, and commerce. As a great landowner, he spoke in support of the serfs.

Using hitherto ignored sources, Professor Barany is able to relate Hungary's political and socio-economic evolution in the realm of the Habsburgs - and Széchenyi's role in it - to broader questions of European history: the sensitivity of French diplomacy to the nuances of the Monarchy's domestic affairs; British attempts toward an advantageous balance of power in Central Europe; the worries of the Holy See about the spread of liberal ideas; and the first fumbling moves of economically motivated American representatives in the direction of restless Hungary.

"This volume gives a new, balanced interpretation of Széchenyi's work. Those interested in the Enlightenment, the origins of nationalism, modernization, and industrialization will get an insight into the events in one of the crucial provinces of the Habsburgs." - Peter F. Sugar

George Barany is a native of Hungary. He now teaches in the Department of History, University of Denver.

SPECIAL PRICE -- ORDER FORM

AMERICAN HUNGARIAN STUDIES FOUNDATION
177 Somerset Street, P.O. Box 1084
New Brunswick, New Jersey 08903

Enclosed is my check or money order for $ _____. Please send me _____ copies of STEPHEN SZÉCHENYI AND THE AWAKENING OF HUNGARIAN NATIONALISM, 1791-1841 at the special price of $13.50 each copy.*

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____

STATE _____

ZIP CODE _____

*Sorry, we cannot bill you. New Jersey state residents please add 3% New Jersey Sales Tax (42 cents for a total of $13.92).