

INTERNATIONAL ROMANCE—Actress Eva Bartok hugs her year-old daughter Deana at a London airport before leaving yesterday to make a film in France. She said she hoped to see Prince Shiv of India, reportedly her fiancée.—AP Wirephoto via radio from London.

③

Prince to Leave Italy Without Seeing Actress

NAPLES, Italy, Oct. 24 (AP).—Indian Prince Shiv said last night he is going home with his maharajah father and has no plans to see actress Eva Bartok right away.

Miss Bartok flew from London to France yesterday saying she hoped to see the Prince.

"I have no comment about Miss Bartok," he told reporters. "I know she is on her way to film. But we won't see each other. We have no appointment to meet."

Asked whether he is engaged to Miss Bartok, the 27-year-old playboy Prince said: "No comment."

Miss Bartok's press agent said in London Monday that she was unofficially engaged to the prince. The prince reportedly sped here to see his father about marrying her.

Prince Shiv said:

"I will leave Naples with my father October 31 aboard the Victoria for 'India, to return home to Palitana."

Before this the prince denied any romantic links with Jane

Buckingham, the London model who was killed in a plane crash Wednesday on her way to win him from Miss Bartok.

He said he had known Miss Buckingham and was shocked to hear of her death. He said he had danced with her several times "and we got along together very well."

"But there was no promise of an engagement between us," he added.

Before her fatal flight Miss Buckingham told newsmen she would not let Miss Bartok take the prince from her.

"He loves me and I love him," she said.

