

Wash. Post 1967 Aug 29

AUGUST 29, 1967

By Wally McNamee—The Washington Post

NEXT CHORE FOR FOWLER—TAXES—
LBJ leaves them laughing as he finishes congratulating Treasury Secretary Fowler on the monetary reserve agreement. The President told Fowler: "We have some other problems for you. Now that you've got this agreement, I hope you get another —out of the Ways and Means Committee!" Standing in back of the President are Fowler, FRB Chairman Martin, Treasury Under Secretary Deming (mostly hidden), and Francis Bator, special assistant to the President, who is leaving the White House on September 1.

