

Hungarian papers

The complete files of the "Szabadság" and "Amerikai Magyar Népszava" are in the possession of the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, Pa., 4338 Bigelow Boulevard, from the start of world war until 1926.

(See: Andrew A. Marchbin: Hungarian activities in Western Pennsylvania, in: The Western Pa. Hist. Magazine, 1940, Sept. P. 172.)

Dr. A. A. Marchbin, who seems to be a Hungarian was a fellow at the Univ. of Pittsburgh, Pa. 1931-32 and lives in 1940 in Pittsburgh, Pa. (Shady Ave) He speaks Hungarian, German and Yiddish.