

Erno Balogh's Etude Picks

Erno Balogh, well known Washington pianist-teacher-composer, has compiled and edited "Concert Etudes for the Piano" (G. Schirmer; $3.50), a new volume in the familiar yellow-covered Schirmer Library (no. 1882).

The album contains 21 concert etudes that in Balogh's opinion merit attention and are not heard frequently enough these days. Among the composers included are Blumenfeld, Dohnanyi, Goedicke, Henselt, Liadov, MacDowell and Prokofieff.
