1976 June

Geza Anda, 54, Swiss Pianist

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) —Geza Anda, one of Europe's outstanding pianists of the postwar era, died Sunday night. He was 54.

Mr. Anda had been scheduled to appear in Washington with the National Symphony Orchestra this November under the baton of Antal Dorati.

Mr. Anda was also known for his recorded performances, and as pianist and conductor, had recorded all the Mozart piano concertos.

Born in Budapest, Hungary, Mr. Anda became a Swiss citizen in 1955.