Blau, 74, Dies; Ex-Municipal Court Justice

BLAT Wal

Native of Hungary Active Republican for 50 Years; Had Been Tax Appraiser

William Blau, former Justice of the Municipal Court, who was active in Republican affairs for fifty years, died yesterday morning at the Hosz pital for Joint Diseases, Madison Avenue between 123d and Streets, after an illness of eight months. He was seventy-four years old and lived at the Hotel Ansonia, Broadway and Seventy-third Street, A native of Eperjes, Hungary, Mr Blau was educated at the public schools of Kaschau, Hungary and at the Royal Academy of Hungary He came to the United States when he was seventeen years old and traveled about the country as a correspondent for Hungarian newspapers and other periodicals. He studied law at the Metropolis Law School, which later became the eve-ning department of the New York University Law School, and was ad-mitted to the bar in 1894. Early in his political chief/ Mc. Blau was secretary of the Hungarian. Republican Club. Able to speak English, Hungarian, German and most of the Slavonic dialects, he helped many immigrangts to begine naturalized citizens of the United States, He was a formerica and a director of the Hongarian for Joint Diseases, of which he was secretary for then't fuel years.

Mr. Blau was appointed a magis-trate by Mayof John Purroy Mitchel in 1917 and held the post until 1919, when he was elected a Justice of the Municipal Court on an independent Republican ticket. He resigned from the Municipal Court on Oct. 31, 1926, three years before his term was to expire, to re-enter private practice. He also had been a transfer tax appraiser for New York State and a Deputy State Attorney Among other organizations of which he was a member were the Knights of Pythias, the First Hungarian Sick Benevolent Society, the New York Social Club, the Federal Club, the Austro-Hungarian Festival Society and the Independent Order of Brith Abraham. Mr. Blau was unmarried. Funeral services will be held today at the Riverside Memorial Chapel Amsterdam Avenue and Seventy-sixth Street. The time has not been set.