CSIKO'S

For an exhilarating experience, savor the delights of the finest Hungarian dishes. You don't have to be Hungarian to enjoy the food. Nor should you worry about over-spiciness, for the food is light. Many international items are available. The atmosphere is reminiscent of classic Budapest dining places, unpretentious but elegant. Doll-like Hungarian figurines and paintings decorate the chandelier-lit room. Csikos has received the Washingtonian Restaurant Awards in 1970, 1971, 1973 and Holiday Magazine's recommendation from 1970 thru 1973. Open for dinner Monday through Saturday 6:00 'till 10:30. Moderate prices. Blue Room available for lunch and dinner parties. Antoinette K. Steiner plays Cimbalom every night.
