Dear Mr Vasváry,

Mr Tivadar Acs of Budapest gave us your name as someone interested in Stephen Parmenius and aware of an autograph copy of his poem on Sir Humphrey Gilbert. If this is not that in the Huntington Library I should be very glad to hear of it.

Toronto University Press is shortly to publish an edition of Parmenius' works, with translations and commentary, by myself and N. Ches-hire. We are at present revising the manuscript for press. If you know of any work in progress on Parmenius, or any texts other than the Huntington Library copy of the Gilbert poem I should be most grateful to hear of them and to acknowledge assistance given.

Yours sincerely,

J. B. Quinn
