

Bogdani + 1720, London

no prof. training - painter of still life
+ birds - to Engl. at early age, known as "the Hungarian": Queen Anne patronized him, made a fortune, later part resided in Engl. over 50 yrs

His house Sign of the Golden Eagle Great Queen St, Lincoln's Inn Fields

at Hampton Court 8 paintings of his, some of which painted expressly for the panels in the "King's closet"

See:

Walpole's Anecdotes of Painting, p. 629

Pilkington's Dict of painters 1852

Manuscripts in British Museum

Redgrave's Dict. of Artists 1878

(above in Dict. of Nat. Biogr
vol. V.)