

BONIS, Laszlo Joseph

Laszlo Joseph Bonis, of Brookline, Massachusetts, is a Research and Development Executive. He is the President and Technical Director of the Ilikon Corporation in Natick, Massachusetts. He was educated at the University of Technical Science, Budapest, receiving his D.M.Eng. in Mechanical Engineering in 1953, and at MIT, receiving his M.Sc. in Metallurgy in 1959. His current and past organizational affiliations include the following: AIME, ASM, International Plansee Society, member of the Executive Committee of the Vacuum Metallurgy Division, American Vacuum Society, Sigma Xi, Trustee and Executive Vice President of the Opera Company of Boston, and sustaining member of the Institute of Contemporary Art, Boston. Mr. Bonis was born in Budapest, Hungary, in 1930, to Joseph and Ilona Hunvald Bonis. He is married to the former Eva Markovich, and has two children: Peter Anthony L. and Andrea Christine. He has published extensively in his field.

The River. Encyc. of the
Wb. 1968

Vol. 3, p. 564

