

Do you know what is the greatest threat to American liberty today?

If you think it is Communism and Russia, YOU ARE WRONG!

The greatest danger to America is the hostility of ASIA — a menace for which we are responsible!

Two-thirds of the population of the world is Asian and African. These millions are in ferment; they are up in arms. The present crisis in the Arab world over the Suez Canal; Egyptian, Syrian, Indian, Burmese, and Indonesian cooperation with Soviet Russia; the threat of the iron-fisted leaders of over 400 million Chinese Communists; the famous Bandung conference of Asian and African leaders—all these dramatize the challenge of Asia.

And what is America doing about this challenge?

It is doing plenty of the wrong things. It is trying to buy Asian friendship—as if the friendship of Ralph Borsodi, Chancellor of the University of Melbourne, believes that the turning of the Arab nations to Soviet Russia proves that time is running out... but he also believes that there is still time to meet the Asian challenge... and in his new book he reveals a dynamic plan for accomplishing the task.

THE CHALLENGE OF ASIA

- READ why Asian nationalism leaves Asian millions wide open to Communist infiltration!
- READ the dangers of an Asian world organized on an anti-white basis!
- READ this first-hand report of what Asian Leaders really want!
- READ how we can and should meet the Asian challenge!

suspicious and resentful people can be bought! It is educating 17,000 students from Asia and Africa—but mis-educating them! For these very Western-educated Asian leaders now turn against us.

Remember the furor about our Government refusal to return Chinese graduates from our colleges and universities to China? Was it because Washington feared they would help Communist China?

If we are failing with these Asian students, isn't it possible that we are also failing with our own? If both our own and these Asian students are being mis-educated, no wonder we are losing Asia!

Is it now too late? Or is there still time to re-win the cooperation of this all-important two-thirds of the world? Is there something we can still do to end Asian and African hostility?

READ what Chancellor Borsodi recommends after an eight-month trip around the world. In Asia, he studied its greatest universities, talked with distinguished educators, and met leaders of thought who gave him first-hand accounts of the ideas with which Asians are pre-occupied at this time of world ferment. In his book, he presents a dramatic analysis of these Asian ideas, a diagnosis of what is right and wrong with them, and a forthright criticism of the mistaken ideas which America and the rest of the western world are relying upon in our futile effort to meet the crisis created by the renaissance of Asia.

The challenge of Asia is far more pressing than the challenge of Soviet Russia, maintains Mr. Borsodi. READ his plan to meet the challenge. READ why we must substitute for our present program of wholesale bribery and of reliance upon military might, a program which he calls "re-education". READ this first, positive solution to the most vital problem of our day as Mr. Borsodi spells it out. Here is a provocative book, a must for every thinking individual—statesman, educator, politician, scientist . . . indeed, every intelligent citizen!
