Kedves Ödön bátyám:

Sometime ago I remember reading the article that bemoaned "the fact" that no one of Hungarian background had been honored with a Pulitzer Prize nor an Oscar award. I am glad that you answered that article and set the record straight concerning the Prize and awards that have gone to persons of Hungarian birth.

May I add one more name to your list of those who have received the Academy Award. It is William Darling, the motion picture director, who was born in Hungary in 1882 and received the Academy Award for the film "Cavalcade" for the year 1932-33. Again in 1946 he was honored as co-director along with Lyle Wheeler for their production "Anna and the King of Siam."

Sincerely yours,

Justi
